Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. D. PURANDESWARI)

(a) to (d): Under the scheme of Community Development through Polytechnics, short term training programmes are conducted with a duration of 3 to 6 months through All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) approved Government/ Government aided and Private Polytechnics. Each Polytechnic is to train 600 persons every year. This scheme is being implemented through 518 Polytechnics. Further, there are 1178 Government Institutions recognized by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE) for imparting various courses on Teacher Education with an approved intake of 90,836 students. Under this Centrally Sponsored scheme of Teacher Education, resource support is provided to the State Governments for establishment of District Institute of Education and Training (DIETs), Colleges of Teacher Education (CTEs), and Institution of Advanced Studies in Education (IASEs) for teacher preparation and teacher training. The revised scheme for the XIIth Plan envisages strengthening and expansion of existing Institutional structure of DIETs, CTEs, IASEs and State Council of Education Research and Training (SCERTs), Establishment of Elementary pre-service teacher education institutions, named the Block Institutes of Teacher Education (BITEs) in 196 SC/ST/Minority concentration districts of the country.

(e) & (f): No, Sir. No database about the number of persons employed thereafter is centrally maintained.
